ALLIES & ORGANIZATIONS

I've grown to be pretty indifferent to everything around me, holding to my tenants as a priest as my only real motivation. I do my job so long as I get paid to keep me in drink. Otherwise, I

FLAWS

I grew up outside Waterdeep with my parents until they both passed. I lived on the streets of Waterdeep for a little while before studying at the temple to become a cleric/priest of Kelemvor. I chose the path of Kelemvor due to my unresolved grief losing my parents and found it was a good way to cope with that loss in service to other going through the same loss of various loved ones. Kelemvor teaches us to guide those in mourning and those in their final moments as well as guide the dead to their final resting place. Through my learnings as a priest we were also taught to have great disdain for the necromatic arts and all forms of undead. (This is why I consecrate corpses after fights.) Due to my fondness of drink and dice I was sent on a tour of penance of sorts, but under no supervision I've come to just take my talents on the road making money where I can performing last rights or funerary services, and occasionally disposing of the odd undead here and there.
